

More in Common - Schools; Society; the World.

Join us for an inspirational day to explore social justice in schools with a focus on the refugee crisis

Cost - £300 per school with a maximum of two delegates able to attend
Schools can use GLP E-Credits to pay for this course

You will leave the day with:

- A deeper understanding of the challenges facing schools and society in 2017
- A greater understanding of Global Learning
- A greater understanding of the impact of P4C
- An understanding of links and resources to include social justice within the curriculum
- Ideas for how children can be involved in leading global learning in your school
- Ideas for the inclusion of drama in your curriculum to support understanding of the refugee crisis, with inspiration and performance from Action Transport Theatre

Thursday 9th November
9am - 4pm
Ellesmere Port
Holiday Inn

To book please contact Mandy Wilkinson
(mwilkinson@stbernards.cheshire.sch.uk) with the following information:

- If you wish to use your E-Credits to pay for the course
- Number of staff attending (Max 2)
- Name:
- School / Organisation:
- Address:
- Tel. No:
- Email:
- Dietary / access requirements:

Your details will be kept on record, but will not be passed on to anyone else.

